

Kneel Down in Silence

Kneel down, kneel down in silence
Trip down, trip down this spiral
Facedown, broken, for I'm estranged now
Roam downtown, lose ground, there's no more anger

All my thoughts down the drain, I won't wake up for a while now
I can't force the laughter out, as time fades away in a nightgown
And I'm shutdown, I won't shun all those ways out
All the ways, all the ways I'll drown, all the ways, all the ways I'll drown

I'm not breaking up this fight
I might as well lie my way out
And pretend it's all right
You can drown my prayers
I've got no worth to spare
Far is your savior in the wake of the fire
There I stand astounded, quiet, quiet, quiet and cowed for now

The soul is no grenade
The soul is no grenade
Ever

The soul is no grenade
The soul is no grenade
Ever the shrines, ever the spine

Your soul is no grenade
Your soul is no grenade
Ever the lies and the disguise

A rerun so familiar
That you can't fight and soar without a sound
A way up high, a way out nigh
Don't shut yourself away now

Oaths will fight the waves
You'll get stronger with the tides
You will find a way and
To wade is to define your saviors

Heaven redesigned just steer anyway you can
Noise is no waste of time
Help's in sight, hellfire's dying